

PACKING

BAGGAGE SUGGESTIONS

Consider bringing only one water-resistant duffle bag and one carry-on daypack to make your travels and connecting flights easier. There is a weight limit of 35 pounds for your checked AND carry-on bags for the puddle jumper flight between Puerto Montt and Chaiten. You can leave any excess luggage with Maria Eugenia, who will meet you upon your return to Puerto Montt.

CLOTHES & WEATHER

Though it will be the height of summer in Chile, we need to be prepared for inclement weather. The “Fu” is located in a region of extreme possibilities. We expect warm, sunny days and cool, clear nights. Mother Nature is the boss, so there may be rain, even snow, which is not unheard of in the Andes. When packing, think of cold and wet as well as sunny and warm weather, and you will be a happy camper.

- Casual and comfortable camp wear. Prepare well with layers.
- Rain shell
- River footwear: Check out the line of toe-protected river footwear. Tevas, Alps, Chacos, Keens, or tennis sneakers with wool socks work well to keep your feet warm.
- Hat
- Sunglasses with securing straps (we recommend “Chums” straps).
- If you own a dry suit, bring it!
- Jeans: For horse-back riding
- Puffy down jacket
- Yoga clothes
- Avid fly-fisherpeople – your rod and flies
- Bathing Suit
- Toiletry kit: including sunscreen, lip balm(sp), lotion, special shampoo & conditioner
- Flashlight and/or headlamp with extra batteries
- Water Bottle, with a carabiner to clip to raft or ducky
- Dress or button down: On our last night together, we dress up a bit
- There is laundry service available at camp.
